*CALL TO WORSHIP Elder Lynn Condra

There are different gifts.

But it is the same Spirit who gives them.

There are different ways of serving God.

But it is the same Lord who is served.

God works through different people in different ways.

But it is the same God who achieves God's purpose through them all.

Each one is given a gift by the Spirit.

To use it for the common good.

Together we are the body of Christ.

And individually members of that body.

Jesus said, "Whoever among you wants to be great must become the servant of all, and whoever wants to be first among you, that one must be the slave of all."

In the same way, the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life to set others free.

Let us worship God:

With all we have been given.

*PRAYER OF ADORATION

Loving God, our hearts are filled to overflowing at the abundance of your goodness to us. We have done nothing to deserve it, but out of your great love, you have called us all by name and chosen us to share in your work. When we were lost and straying like sheep away from your care, you brought us back into the fold of your tender embrace and redeemed us. When we were fickle and faithless, you were faithful. When we were overcome with fear, you spoke your words of peace and blessing into our lives. Mark us with gratitude and accompany us all the days of our lives. Show us how to give back to you some measure of all you have so freely given to us. Amen.

*SONG OF PRAISE

You Are Mine

I will come to you in the silence, I will lift you from all your fear.

You will hear my voice, I claim you as my choice, be still and know I am here.

Refrain: Do not be afraid, I am with you. I have called you each by name

Come and follow me, I will bring you home;

I love you and you are mine.

I am hope for all who are hopeless, I am eyes for all who long to see.

In the shadows of the night, I will be your light, come and rest in me.

(to Refrain)

*RECESSIONAL

All Are Welcome

arr. Marty Haugen

*Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live,
A place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace;
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
Refrain: All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.*

*Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong and true,
Where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus: (to Refrain)*

*Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:
A banquet hall on holy ground, where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space;
As we share in Christ the feast that frees us: (to Refrain)*

*Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone
To heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face;
Let us bring an end to fear and danger: (to Refrain)*

*Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard
And loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace,
Let this house proclaim from floor to rafter: (to Refrain)*
